I think it is no longer available but Hobby Lobby carries a similar map fabric that's part of their permanent collection.

I picked up about a 3/4 yard piece at hobby lobby cheap from the remnants. I am thinking what a cute PICU quilt this will make. But I am not sure how to best use the fabric. I know someone

Many new quilters get sets of rotary cutter, mats for the rotary cutter and rulers in a package at big fabric stores like JoAnns or Hobby Lobby or Hancock. You can find coupons to get

Since I'm new to sewing and just building my stash, it hasn't occurred to DH yet that, despite my stash, I still have to go purchase fabric whenever I start a new project. So I'm frantically building

Sew. I have plans to make a Halloween quilt, as I'm sure I've said before. I've looked for fabric at least six times, having visited all four local JoAnn's and two, if not all three, of our Hobby

Re: In search of Disney Hi Lorie, Here's one at Hobby Lobby site. Search Results | Shop Hobby Lobby

I've been told I make way too much work of this, HOWEVER, I bought some of those plastic baggies from Hobby Lobby that are used for beads and I put my spool of thread (usually use the

Thank,s Dollyquilts. I'm just concerned about having to purchase blades online. Does Joann's or Hobby Lobby sell blades that fit the Martinelli rotary cutter? Joann also sells the
